1932 Ford Truck #74 David McGovert/Hollister

The judge says...This truck had two different license plates on the back, and a third license plate on the driver's floorboard! The front bumper was illegal, it had no fenders or mudflaps, and a BEER KEG in the back! The overall appearance can only be described as "Diseased." Old cop adage: People who don't take care of their cars, don't take care of their driving records. So, I would probably want to check the status of his driver license. I recommend he not drive this home, but to have it towed!
